

Get Your Orange On!

Monday, June 21st is National Indigenous Peoples Day.

In light of the B. C. residential school discovery, you might want to join others across Canada and wear orange to highlight the need for Indigenous education in our country. Do your part to remember the lost children and make an intention for healing and change.

So get out your orange shirt, crocs, nail polish or ribbon.

Why Orange?

Phyllis Webstad started Orange Shirt Day to teach the world that “ Every Child Matters”. She was given an orange shirt by her grandmother when she was taken to St. Joseph’s Mission Residential School in B. C. Phyllis was to wear the orange shirt on opening day of school. But her new shirt- and all her clothes- were taken away when she arrived; the shirt was never returned.

Phyllis started Orange Shirt Day to educate people about residential schools and fight racism & bullying..

Let’s Orange-Up in Compassion!!

CONFÉRENCE DES ÉVÊQUES CATHOLIQUES DU CANADA
CANADIAN CONFERENCE OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS

Statement from the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops following the recent discovery at the former Kamloops Indian Residential School on the Tk'emlúps te Secwépemc First Nation

On behalf of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCCB), I express our deepest sorrow for the heartrending loss of the children at the former Kamloops Indian Residential School on the Tk'emlúps te Secwépemc First Nation.

The news of the recent discovery is shocking. It rekindles trauma in numerous communities across this land. Honouring the dignity of the lost little ones demands that the truth be brought to light.

This tragedy profoundly impacts Indigenous communities, with whom many people across this land and throughout the world now stand in solidarity.

As we see ever more clearly the pain and suffering of the past, the Bishops of Canada pledge to continue walking side by side with Indigenous Peoples in the present, seeking greater healing and reconciliation for the future.

We lift up prayers to the Lord for the children who have lost their lives and pledge our close accompaniment of Indigenous families and communities.

May our Creator God bless all of us with consolation and hope.
